The KKFAct has been a critical lifeline to students and families by providing a temporary increase in funding for schools to ensure children continue to have access to high-quality, affordable meals, and are well-fed and ready to learn. The law provided an additional 40-cent reimbursement for school lunch, 15-cent reimbursement for school breakfast, and 10-cent reimbursement for meals under the Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP) for the 2022-2023 school year. We implore Congress to
